Silent Auction Preview

1st edition – June 2010 – Updates to come!

Artwork ☀ Sports Memorabilia ☀ Golf Items ☀ Personal Services

Come ready to treat yourself (or your friends and family!) to artwork, sports memorabilia, golf items, personal services, and other great auction items. The Silent Auction will be open during registration and throughout the first part of the After-Play Lunch Party. Exciting items this year will include the following, but there will be many more items on which you can bid.

Stunning works by Daniel A. Moore

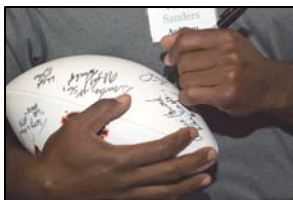

"Desperation Block"
(right - large original canvas replica)

"Maximum Block"

"...Moore's talent and faithful attention to detail have endeared him to his appreciative fine art patrons. The quality and collectibility of his work have significantly boosted the value of his limited edition lithographs. Most of Mr. Moore's print editions have already reached "sold-out" status and have become highly prized heirlooms to be passed on to future generations of sports fans. (From www.newlifeart.com).

Autographed Auburn/Alabama footballs

Love Auburn? Love Alabama? This is a great opportunity to own a football signed by all of the celebrity golfers who are played for each team.

Premier Sky Box at a Barons Home Game

Treat yourself and a party of up to 12 to a first-rate Barons experience: a game in a sky box with catering included!

*Check back at www.specialequest.org for updates - more items to come!
Auction proceeds support the mission of Special Equestrians.*
